

If authors want to publish the full papers that accepted in proceedings, full papers should be prepared as max 20 pages, 1,5 lines, Times New Roman, 12 point, justified (2,5 margins).

The Expanded Abstract Paper should be entered the system without contact information etc. about authors as the follows.

- Title: It should be written in both Turkish and English.
- Abstract: It should be written in both Turkish and English and should have max 150 words.
- Keywords: It should be written in both Turkish and English and should have max 5 words.
- Introduction and Purpose of Study:
The reader should be informed about study search for an answer which questions, take out from which research question os questions and why this study is necessary in this section.
- Literatur Review (Conceptual/Theoritic Framework):
Studies that especially related to subject and purpose of study should be summarized and it should be clearly expalined why this study important/meaningful, which gap will be filled and what contribution will it provide in this section.
- Design and Method: In the method part of study;
 - Type of study (practical, conceptual, theorotic, compilation);
 - If study is practical, design of study (heuristic, descriptive, causative);
 - Problem(s) of study (it is in accord with problem that is in purpose of study);
 - If any model(s) and/or hypothesis(s) of study;
 - Universe, sampling method and sampling process of study;
 - Data collection technique should be stated;
 - It should be satated briefly which quantitative / qualitative analyzes are used.
- Findings and Discussion:
Authors should discussion the findings that obtained through data analysis or conceptual studies and also similarities and differences and their reasons should be evaluated.
- Conclusion, Suggestions and Restrictions:
Authors should be mentioned important matters that related to findings of study, associated with conceptual/theortical and contribute the literature. Then suggestions should be written to implementers and/or researchers.
- References:
References should be given at the end of study in accordance with Paper Writing Formal Rules.